

Garden Level

The Garden Level is devoted to the Society's Main Office and related administration rooms including the Society's Library that is a valuable location for researchers wanting to trace their ancestors dating back to the late 1600s.

